

In Haggai 2 verse 19, God promises to bless His people. That means God promises to give them His best—whatever they need!

In Haggai 2 verse 23, God tells them how they can be sure that He will give them His best: because of their leader, Zerubbabel! God says Zerubbabel will be like His signet ring (a special ring that kings wore with their own logo on, which they used to make prints on important documents). In other words, God says He has chosen Zerubbabel to be His special mark of approval on His people.

Why not design your own special logo for this ring, and colour it in?

How can we be sure that God will give us His best? We don't have a leader called Zerubbabel!

You can turn to Matthew chapter 1 for a clue, or use the first letter of the name of each object below to spell out the name of our special leader:
